The National Alcohol and Drug Addiction Recovery Month is close at hand and there are a lot of things your organization can do in recognition of this wonderful event. Recovery month is a time to highlight the benefits of substance abuse treatment as well as celebrate those in treatment and the professionals that help them.

Each year, new Recovery Month publications are produced, including a poster, media kit, and flyers in English and Spanish. All of these materials are available easy to find and order from the NPRC. Just search for "2009 recovery month" to find all of the great options.

The Recovery Month website, <http://www.recoverymonth.gov>, provides a multitude of ways to observe the month and encourages organizations to share their events with the nation. Some of the things you will find on the Recovery Month site are:

- Television and Radio PSAs <http://www.recoverymonth.gov/Multimedia/PSAs.aspx>
- Stories of recovery <http://www.recoverymonth.gov/Voices-for-Recovery/Stories.aspx>
- Community event calendar <http://www.recoverymonth.gov/Community-Events.aspx>
- Banner and logo files for your website or publications <http://www.recoverymonth.gov/Banners-Logos-and-Flyers.aspx>

If your organization is holding an event in observance of recovery month, please send it to the NPRC at nprc@casat.org. We will add it to our online event calendar, list it in the August issue of the NPRC Update, and will add it to the national Recovery Month calendar if you would like. We can't wait to hear about all of your wonderful events!
